How can you spend STABLE funds?

- Withdrawals must be used on “Qualified Disability Expenses”
 - Anything that (1) relates to your disability and (2) helps to maintain or improve your health, independence, or quality of life

Examples:

- Housing and Rent
- Basic Living Expenses
- Medical/Financial/Legal Bills
- Education
- Transportation
- Assistive Technology
- Others

Non-Qualified Expenditures

- Not illegal, but there are consequences

Affects Benefits

- The amount of the expenditure may now be considered a countable resource (but not necessarily)

Tax Penalties

- Pay taxes plus 10% penalty on the earnings portion of the withdrawal
- Example: You contribute $90 to your account, and you make $10 in earnings – your balance is now $100. You withdraw that $100 but do not use it for a QDE. You must pay regular income taxes on the $10 of earnings, plus an additional 10% penalty on that same $10.

Spending From Your Account

Withdrawals

- Free + No Limits
- WVABLE will not ask what you spend on, but benefits agencies and IRS can
- Transfer to personal checking or savings
- Third-Party Check
- Transfer to STABLE Card

A program of the West Virginia State Treasurer's Office

STABLE Card

- Loadable debit card
- Does not pull from account
- Online spending records + notate expenses
- No commingling of funds with other accounts
- Protection – limiting of merchants, no cash access, no overdraft
- Text alerts to monitor spending, low balances

SSI Considerations

- Balances over $100,000 count as a resource – but SSI merely suspended, not terminated
 - (Your account balance will not affect Medicaid benefits, though, regardless of the amount)
- If you hold on to the money from one calendar month to the next, then housing expenditures and non-qualified expenditures count as resources
- Beneficiary's own wages still count as income even if contributed to a WVABLE account

If Account Holder Passes Away

- Account will pass to the account holder's estate
 - The estate administrator notifies STABLE and can take over account access
 - No designated transfer upon death
 - Account will go through normal probate process
- If Beneficiary was on Medicaid, Medicaid can ask for payback in some cases. BUT! Medicaid does not get first bite at the apple. The estate can first:
 - Pay any outstanding bills for QDEs
 - Pay for funeral and burial expenses
 - Deduct Medicaid Buy-In premiums you paid
- Medicaid Payback is only from date the account was opened
- Money in a STABLE Account is better protected from Medicaid payback than money in other bank accounts
